

ARTICLE APPEARED
ON PAGE 1

THE WALL STREET JOURNAL
12 December 1980

Washington Wire

CIA SHAKEUP? The Republican takeover will revive moves to reshape the U.S. intelligence setup. Wyoming Sen. Wallop will push his bill to dismantle the CIA and create separate agencies for intelligence-gathering, analysis and counterintelligence work. Proponents, including some Reagan advisers, see improved efficiency. Opponents warn of confusion.